- THE WHITE FOX DISCOVERY TRAIL - (2,7 KM)

Long ago, a cunning man secretly smuggled goods across the border near Reusel. He often outsmarted the customs officers and earned the nickname “The White Fox.” Chocolate hidden in hollowed-out loaves of bread, butter stashed in his coat, and sugar tucked under tram cars—there was nothing he wouldn’t try!

Today, you can discover his thrilling smuggling past for yourself in the woods of Reusel. The White Fox is still active and could really use your help. Join him on the smugglers’ trail, complete the smuggling challenges along the way, and keep a sharp lookout for the constable!

TIP

For an extra complete ‘smuggling experience’, you can buy a smuggling bag for €5 containing:

- Handkerchief to make a knapsack
- Voucher for a small treasure chest (after the route)
- Keychain
- Gift voucher for a free pancake at Restaurant Bij de Neut

Bijenvereniging Sint Ambrosius Reusel

Our direct neighbours, Bijeenvereniging Sint Ambrosius Reusel (bee association) make delicious local honey. With their passion for bees and nature, they have been working to preserve these wonderful creatures since 1932. And you can taste that in their pure, flavoursome honey.

Bakkerij van Heeswijk

All our bread comes from Bakkerij van Heeswijk in the Brabantse Kempen region. Baking has been carried out here with passion and craftsmanship since 1914. From slow-baked tin loaves and distinctive windmill-ground bread to delicious fruit tarts, everything is made with care and a love for the craft. This allows us to bring the taste of the region to the table at De Oude Brandtoren.
